Old News: Tractor that Bob Bevens is working on will be ready for spring use on the new field. Club is still looking for a cheap good rototiller for tractor. Contact club officers if you know of one available.

Events possibly planned for next year:

- a. Ugly Plane Contest
- b. Night Fly

Will be discussed next year.

New Years Day (Polar Fun Fly) is planned for 10am with the following:

- a. Fire Pits
- b. Chili made by Eric Suing
- c. Corn bread made by Jon Hart and Dave Novotny
- d. Bring your own drink
- e. Fun for all!

New Business:

1. Dues are due by the 1st of January 2018. Dues are $50
2. New requirement; all Pilots are now required to register with the FAA. This came out from the AMA announcement.
3. Discussion to change the bylaws for Family Membership to $10 for immediate family members in the same household. This was put to a vote passed.

Keizer Radio Control Association

4. Reminder for members to fly in the North field or to the west when workers are in the field. Provide a spotter for pilots flying during these times to keep track of where the workers are.
5. Sad news, Bud Waterman passed away and is now flying with the Angels. He will be missed.
6. AMA Insurance for the fields are due in March.
7. There was a no show for the Show and Tell this meeting, maybe next meeting?
8. A Facebook page was discussed to be able to provide members with up to date information like e.g. field conditions, workers on the field... and to help increase membership. Eric Suing will look into setting up a Facebook page for the club.
